ABOUT THE SOCIETY

The Crystal City Historical Society was incorporated in 1978. Originally housed in the Crystal City Public Library, then the old PPG Office Building at 100 Mississippi Avenue, the Society is now located at 126 Mississippi Avenue.

The Crystal City Historical Society is a 501c(3), not for profit organization consisting of dedicated volunteers.

MISSION STATEMENT

The primary mission of the Crystal City Historical Society is to preserve the history of Crystal City and to share it with others. We also provide historical research, data and collections pertaining to other parts of Jefferson County.

An important part of our mission is interacting with our school children with visits to their classroom and providing a fieldtrip destination for a hands on lesson in rich Crystal City history.

We are available by appointment for any age group to visit the historical society.

MUSEUM DISPLAY

Our museum holds a pictorial history of Crystal City Schools, some businesses (with plats of their development), fire and police departments, along with a pictorial history of PPG. We also house artifacts of long-gone eras.

It is an exciting and interesting display of our city's past!

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED

Much remains to be done. We need assistance in many areas, including:

Verbal family and local stories passed down from parents and grandparents.

Old photographs of Crystal City, its businesses, streets and families are welcome.

We welcome donations of any artifacts pertaining to Crystal City, regardless of how small.

All donations are appreciated!
